Lee Jae-myung Sends Official Condolence Letter to U.S. House Speaker on the Passing of Congressman Charles B. Rangel

Presidential candidate Lee Jae-myung has sent a letter of condolence to U.S. House Speaker Mike Johnson, honoring the life and legacy of former Congressman Charles B. Rangel.

In his message, Lee remembered Rangel as “a towering figure” and a lifelong friend to Korea—from his service in the Korean War to his 46 years in Congress and his leadership as founding Co-Chair of the Congressional Korea Caucus.

Quoting Rangel’s words, “Korea will always have a place in my heart,” Lee praised his unwavering commitment to the Korea-U.S. alliance and extended condolences to Speaker Johnson, the Rangel family, and the U.S. Congress.

Lee called Rangel’s moral clarity and compassion a lasting inspiration for peace and unity between both nations.

The letter was delivered through the U.S. Embassy in Seoul. <fin>
